

Tiny Houses at Camp Nauvoo

Camp Nauvoo, located at 1095 South Warsaw Street in Nauvoo, Illinois, is owned and operated by the Cedar Valley-Nauvoo Mission Center; a division of Community of Christ.

Camp Nauvoo is a great location to host church camps, retreats, and reunions. The campground is also available for rental by other groups when not it is not in use for events hosted by Community of Christ.

Along with RV spots, tent/camper spots, rustic cabins, and the main lodge; Camp Nauvoo now offers five tiny houses as rental options.

The tiny houses offer a cabin-like feel but come equipped with a full bathroom, kitchenette, heat, and air conditioning. Each tiny house can sleep up to 8 people.

The tiny houses were built off-site by local Amish craftsman and then moved to Camp Nauvoo.

The cost to rent a tiny house is $95/per night + tax.

Contact Penny or Tim Tinsley for more information or to reserve a tiny house for your stay in historic Nauvoo, Illinois.
